

I do not want the FCC to allow relationship customers such as my bank to be able to call me with tele-marketing calls at all times. Please consider not allowing this change to pass. Not having telemarketing calls has been a wonderful thing in my family's life. I fully support the measure to not allow my credit card company, bank, or phone carrier to be able to contact me unless I specifically ask for it or allow it.